Comment text:

I live in Dringhouses, off Chaloners Road. My family has lived here since 1961. This is Dringhouses - not Acomb, not Westfield, not Woodthorpe, not 'Westhorpe'. The recognised boundary where Dringhouses starts is the Acorn Rugby League Club / Chesney Field. Your proposed 'Dringhouses ward' effectively erases my community's identity and denies our existence as part of Dringhouses. This is unacceptable and I urge you to reconsider.

Believe it or not this is actually affecting my mental health. You intend to take away my very strong sense of my community, where I live and where I am from. I live in Dringhouses, I will always live in Dringhouses.

You are I feel blatantly disregarding the massive human element in all of this, so that a party many of whom have no historical connection to York can politically point score.

Surely you must know this.
