

Fareham Borough Council*Personal Details:*Organisation Name:*Comment text:

I would support a reduction in councillors not a increase. Local government is already biased to the needs and views of local residents and continue to increase taxation and reduce services. Unless residents are noticed the electorate will not vote and it will be total control by councillors elected by the few and do not represent the majority. The whole governing of the country needs reform from parliament, county and local level.

Uploaded Documents:

None Uploaded