I live in the Ruscombe area which is currently integrated into the Remenham, Wargrave and Ruscombe ward. Ruscombe has far more in common with Twyford than with the other two areas of our ward. Many of the local facilities are shared between the residents of both and we therefore have a common interest in the combined area. In my view, Ruscombe should be linked to Twyford in the future arrangements. In fact, Charvil, Twyford and Ruscombe could be considered as a unit. Hurst might also be considered but is really a bit further away, sufficient to be concerned with its own local amenities.
