This ward is served by three committed and extremely hard working - Liberal - Councillors. The amount of work undertaken by them could not possibly be carried out by one person. Reducing numbers to a single individual would severely impact on the community - a community that needs all the help it can get. Unless, of course, the intention is to reduce the size of wards. This is not a political objection. Unlike some, I'm not of the opinion that it is a Conservative ruse to gain more leverage in LCC, although a move away from what is virtually a single party council, would be welcomed. Rather, I'm concerned that cherished councillors and facilities (e.g. Newsham Park) will be lost to the people who need them most.
