Hi

I fully agree with the idea that village identities should be maintained. Therefore I totally disagree with a boundary going down the centre of Bookham high street. The boundary should be at the border between Bookham and Fetcham. This will also mean that no councillor would have the difficult task of dealing with the concerns of BOTH villages

In general, I disagree with the idea of having a boundary along the centre of any street/road. It would make more sense for any boundary to go along the divide between the back gardens of the properties backing on to each other.

Regards
