Comment text:

The proposal to combine Pilgrims and Shalford Wards is clearly wrong and at Odds with the main aim to ensure that the ward boundaries reflect the interests and identities of local communities. Seale and Sands and indeed Puttenham and Shackleford in Pilgrims have no links or common identity with large parts of Shalford especially in the Eastern part. Most of this is probably due to the main arterial routes to the south of Guildford running North to South whereas the proposal suggests a particularly elongated Ward from West to East. The cross country links from West to East are infamously slow and difficult and it is difficult to understand how they could ever be perceived as being good. One compromise might be to add Compton, as the closest part of Shalford Ward, to Pilgrims and to continue with one councillor for this enlarged Ward.
