my objections are:- 1. Penn Ward boundaries should be kept as they are. Merry Hill, Tettenhall Regis and Tettenhall Wightwick are similar to Penn and they are keeping their current boundaries. 2. Coalway Road and Goldthorn Hill and Coton Rd are clearly a natural physical boundary. Moving these will leave Penn Ward with no clearly identifiable boundaries.. This will fail the test of having clearly defined boundaries if this proposal is adopted. 3. Another test around 'reflecting community identity, has been ignored'. Penn Ward will lose its only Catholic church, St. Michael. This is very important to Penn Catholics but also other Penn residents. 4. If someone was to visit the concerned wards, it will be obvious that the moving of the boundaries makes no sense. Coalway Rd and Goldthorn Hill are clear and obvious boundaries. There is a distinct difference in character between the wards and this should be maintained.
