It makes total sense for the Wood Lane area to be classed under the same ward rather than the current 3. There are issues in the area that are not being solved because of this the split wards. I'm also glad that the ward is being renamed to include Timperley as the Hale Barns title was not representative. The split of the Broomwood seems strange. I would have expected it to be in a single ward given it is one of the poorer areas of the area contrasted with the very wealthy Hale Barns. South Timperley and Hale Barns are very different areas both by ethnicity and socio-economic. I'm concerned that the councillors elected will serve the wealthy part of the ward more to the detriment of the poorest given they are more likely to vote.
