Looking at the proposed Hale Barns and Timperley South - How can a councillor represent part of the Broomwood council housing estate AND the posh houses in Hale Barns? They are totally different areas. Will councillors from Hale Barns be interested in the problems of the Broomwood estate? Or interested in the rest of Timperley? They are also separated physically by the Green Belt land. The dividing line along Mainwood Road will split residents of the Broomwood estate between two wards, who would then be represented by two different lots of councillors. The previous boundary changes were bad enough, but this seems ridiculous.
