Subject: Derby/Sinfin boundary changes

[REDACTED] [REDACTED]

Hi,

I've seen the council sharing a boundary review on their website. I live in Sinfin, the actual place not just the Sinfin Ward that has contained Osmaston and Allenton too.

I like that Sinfin will be it's own community and it's own ward, I don't really know why it had Osmaston and Allenton attached to it - it was really confusing for a lot of people!

But what I don't understand is, why create a "Sinfin Ward" and then another Ward that is Osmaston and Wilmorton and Crewton (also I've never heard of Crewton so don't really know why that's in the title when Sinfin has been Sinfin and Osmaston but Osmaston was never mentioned. That's really weird). Why create Osmaston and Wilmorton and Crewton but leave that small bit of Osmaston in Sinfin Ward?? Isn't that just odd? I don't go there, we don't have any links with that bit. We have more links to Stenson Fields than Osmaston...like my Road is split between Derby City Council and South Derbyshire Council. Can't you change those boundary's instead?

So basically I don't understand why Sinfin can't just be Sinfin. Spondon seems to be staying the same so why can't Sinfin be it's own area??

Thanks,
