I strongly object to Drakes Broughton being linked with the new town at Norton. Drakes Broughton is still a vilage community (albeit with two large estates tagged on to it). We feel we are part of the villages around Pershore, not Worcester. Therefore I would like the ward of Drakes Broughton, Wadborough, Pirton and Peopleton to be formed. Even though Drakes Broughton is larger than the other villages, it is still very much a village, not a town. Norton is too far away from Drakes Broughton and will have very different issues as the new town is built.
