I am against the proposed changes which will move Peopleton into the Drakes Broughton ward. Peopleton is a small village with far more in common with Upton Snodsbury, Churchill and White Ladies Aston and has existing community links with these villages. Drakes Broughton is a very large village which is rapidly expanding to the size of a small town. I feel that Peopleton has very little in common with Drakes Broughton and, if it is part of the same ward, will be competing for Councillor's time and resources. I see no logical reason for moving Peopleton from its current rural ward into a towny ward with a very different identity.
