I do not agree with the huge Ashwell and Weston ward that is proposed. It is far too big an area for a councillor to cover and fully understand the diverse topics that will have to be addressed in the different villages etc. I know that 3 councillors are proposed for the area and that topics can be split up between them but in my opinion this is not a satisfactory solution. I think this will be confusing for members of the public. I consider that a better solution would be to split the area into three separate wards having approximately equal electorate.
