Comment text:

Why has the name 'Ruscombe' disappeared! Ruscombe has a distinct and entirely different character to the more urbanised Twyford. There are a number of local organisations that use the 'Twyford & Ruscombe' designation. It is not in keeping with local custom to simply treat Ruscombe as if it is a subsidiary part of Twyford. I do not think this is simply a matter of semantics - it reflects how those of us that live here recognise and value our home. Ruscombe is a distinct village within the borough and should be recognised as such. Please call the ward 'Twyford, Ruscombe & Hurst'
