Related subject: Elections

I support the Conservatives, however living in Crawcrook my vote is wasted as this candidate is 'anonymous'. I cannot vote Labour currently as they do not achieve in my area, so in order not to waste my vote I support the Green Party. This voting system does not represent me or many of my friends and neighbours living in Crawcrook. If there is a General Election I want to vote on a National not Regional basis. Short of moving house, how can my Conservative vote be recognised?
