Kidsgrove loses out all the time. Currently under Newcastle Borough it is largely ignored by them with service provision but comes under Stoke North MP. Kidsgrove with a few under Moorlands Mp. It has a Town Council but doesn't get the benefits of the unitary council on its border. Kidsgrove gets too many demands from the local plan of NULBC and is constantly expected to accommodate more than its share of new homes, with green space identified that is valued by its Kidsgrove residents. These changes do little to support or enhance the parish of Kidsgrove. Just adds to confusion of which council, which Mp?
