Related subject: Battenhall/Cathedral

Before 2004 Woolhope & Bolston were in Battenhall (then called St. Peter) and were added to All Saints Ward, city centre and Britannia Square to make Cathedral Ward numbers-which the Diglis development increased out of proportion making it necessary now to split Cathedral. They are at least partly-and many dwellings absolutely, detached from the properties on Bath Rd. which look out on the Malvern Hills and Diglis Field. Logically, they should be in Battenhall and form part of this community with The Hill Avenue and St. Dunstan's Crescent.
