

Northumberland

Personal Details:

Name: [REDACTED]
Email: [REDACTED]
Postcode: [REDACTED]
Organisation Name: (Member of the public)

Comment text:

Related subject: New Delaval and Hartley/Seaton Sluice

This plan basically extends the boundaries of New Hartley to allow more land to be built on. Absolutely not. You can't ruin small mining villages like this. The 200+ houses currently being built in Hartley are more than adequate. So much so, they aren't even selling. This isn't about councils or divisions. This is purely to find a way to build more houses. Just destroying Northumberland with expensive properties that aren't needed. You won't destroy our beautiful countryside and lovely village.

Attached Documents:

None attached