

Calderdale

Personal Details:

Name: [REDACTED]
Email: [REDACTED]
Postcode: [REDACTED]
Organisation Name: (Member of the public)

Comment text:

Related subject: All of it

There are too many councillors as it is.

National government are reducing and so should local government.

There is far too much local government.

The councillors we have only ever direct people to the local council site and have no say/influence in local issues.

We need fewer councillors who actually work for the constituents and have influence over decisions made over the constituents and listen and act on constituents issues.

Attached Documents:

None attached