I strongly disagree with Church Pulverbatch Parish with becoming part of The Bishops Castle Ward. With due respect to people in that Ward, we have little in common, we are twelve miles apart and the road is very high and torturous. There are no ties between their education, medically shopping, socially or religious. A councillor from that Ward would have little or no knowledge of the issues that concern the residents of Church Pulverbatch. Our current Ward Councillor lives in the Parish.

One must make the point why don't Bayston Hill Parish have two councillors. Should there unfortunately have to be change we have more in common with Longden Ward.

Having lived in The Burnell since 1954, I can vouch for the fact this is a well run Ward much respected by its residents, so let us stay as we are.
