Dear sir/madam,

I am emailing to support plans to keep Thorney Close, Grindon, Springwell and Hastings Hill together in one ward represented by one set of local councillors.

I agree that these areas should be kept together instead of being split up or merged with other estates like Farringdon or Plains Farm.

These are similar types of estate which are centred around Sandhill View school and the extension

These are similar types of estate which are centred around Sandhill View school and the extension park. There are familiar and understood ward boundaries which I believe should be kept.

I am in favour of the name being 'Grindon

I am in favour of the name being 'Grindon and Thorney Close Ward' to represent the two biggest estates in the area. It also makes it easier for people to know who their councillors are compared to the current name 'Sandhill Ward'.
