Related subject: Thrupp and Brimscombe being split from Chalford and Minchinhampton to join Bisley and Painswick.

As a local resident, I strongly feel that the communities along the Chalford valley and sides have a lot in common.

We are in the same geographical area - we share the same stretch of water and type of terrain and are physically side by side.

And we share day to day living - our physical proximity means that we also share local events, both positive and negative, the experiencing of which together makes us a strong community.

Therefore, it makes much more sense for us to remain combined as a county division than splitting off Thrupp and Brimscombe from Chalford and Minchinhampton to join the much more distant Bisley/Painswick communities.

With thanks for reading this.
